

GVHA Announcement

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Victoria, B.C., Friday, August 20, 2010...

The Board of Directors of Greater Victoria Harbour Authority (GVHA) announced today that Paul Servos has resigned his position as Chief Executive Officer.

Message from Don Prittie, Chair of the Board of Directors:

“Paul has left the organization after helping GVHA grow to the next stage of its development. We thank Paul for his contributions and wish him every success,” said Don Prittie Chair of the Board.

“The Board will be developing a candidate profile over the next few weeks to address the needs and challenges of the next decade. We will then be undertaking an executive search. In the interim, Sonterra Ross, GVHA’s Manager of Finance and Property, will be overseeing the leadership of the organization. Sonterra is a CMA and has been with the Society since 2003. She will assume the responsibilities of Acting CEO effective immediately.”
